Several years ago we remodeled our Santa Barbara home. It was a major undertaking lasting over two years. The plaster, painting, faux and unique finishes that Kevin Doukas contributed to our home gave it the final beautiful look that pulled the entire home together to give us the Mediterranean feel we wanted. Kevin initially produced many samples of unique textures, colors and mediums for us to choose from. Many of the interior walls are a beautiful Venetian plaster, in addition there are accent rooms using burlap and straw within the plaster and even a stencil affect on beams.

Kevin also created a beautiful aged look to the outside of the house. It was a four- step process that created the exact look we had wanted.

Kevin and his support team were all extremely easy to work with and they always achieved the result we were looking for. We highly recommend the expertise of Kevin Doukas.
